SHARES OF $100 EACH. A PERMANENT EXPOSITION, TO BE HELD ANNUALLY.

ABOUT CLEAN STREETS.

The attention of the health department has more than once been called to the condition of the streets, bu nothing has been done towards putting them in better order. Now, however. just on the eve of an election, perhaps an appeal will be listened to by the municipal authorities.

Something should certainly be done For nearly the entire length of Salen. 17 and 19 Second Street, southwest. avenue, stretches a chain of mud-puddles. Every time it rains they are refilled and stand festering in the sur with the winds blowing their fetid breath up and down the principal thoroughfare of the city. They are an eyesore to the pedestrians and a source of hicles who have occasion to stop at any RENTING A SPECIALTY of the business houses.

be earefully looked after by the officers jan2-tf entrusted with this important work There are also a number of swampy places in various parts of the town which should be drained.

It is an old saw that "a new broom TUAL sweeps clean." It is to be hoped that the city officers elected on Thursday will see that the streets are kept in better condition.

LIVE MEN WANTED.

No one will deny the value of natural advantages, but the new towns springing up in this section should not lose sight of the fact that something else is required to make a city.

Without men to push them, natura advantages amount to little more than VINTON EXTENSION nothing. There are but few towns without them, but a great many are truth of the above.

"I remember," said a gentleman," Croesus, once sought introduction to building). Dr. H. M. Caldwell, president of the jan4-tf Elyton Land Company. After the encounter, he said, 'Doctor, I was determined to see the man who made Birmingham what she is.' The doctor modestly disdained the compliment, advantages.' Then GEN. THOMAS noderate. Work first class. abruptly, and a little profanely, retorted: "Oh, d-n natural advantages! It is live men who make towns Roanoke. Va. great."

A BEAUTIFUL LEGEND. After STONEWALL JACKSON'S death, at Chancellorsville, a story became current in the Confederate army which JAPANESE GOODS, the soldiers loved to repeat over their bivouac fires-that, on account of his extreme piety, when their famous chieftain fell, a detachment of angels left the heavenly gates to visit the battlefield and escort the hero's sou'. into Paradise. The celestial squadron searched the close strewn plain, but without effect. He whom they sought could not be found, and they returned ronting on Salem avenue and Camp mournfully to heaven to report their want of success. But lo ! on arriving, they found the spirit of the immortal CONTRACTING. warrior there already. STONEWALL Railroad Work, JACKSON had 'made a flank' march and got to Heaven before them.

PAY DAY. What an immense power is money! Yesterday afternoon the employes of Roanoke's great industries received an be done neater and cheaper than their monthly salaries. Not less than y any other method. $100,000 was placed in circulation and the streets were crowded with people. The stores did a rushing business and every one seemed to be happier than usual. It makes a man feel better to have a roll of bills in his pocket. It does him good to spend it and it carries happiness and cheerfulness into the home, the church and the store. How much pleasanter it would all be, how much more worth living would life seem, if every day was pay day.

CORNELL COLLEGE has decided to abolish its school of journalism. The trustees are right. A newspaper man is the result of experience and all the colleges in the world couldn't make one without it.
